Date September 26, 1962

RICHARD W. CLARK, 308 Dogwood Lane, Wallingford, Pa., furnished the following information:

CLARK advised that he is known nationally as DICK CLARK of the American Bandstand, WFIL-TV, Philadelphia, Pa. CLARK stated that he receives several thousand letters of fan mail daily and they are processed by his employees at the television studio. He stated the letter in question was received in the studio mail on September 18, 1962. CLARK stated he was not acquainted with the name [redacted] as reflected on the envelope and stated in all probability it was some juvenile that was responsible for writing the letter. He further stated that he had not appeared in Minnesota and that the closest he has been to that State was Wisconsin where he made an appearance approximately four weeks ago.

CLARK stated that although he receives a large volume of mail daily, this is the only threat that he can recall within the past year. He stated he recalled a similar threat to kill his wife which was also mailed from Minnesota but at that time the threat was written on a postcard.

CLARK stated that he is not in fear of bodily harm and was advised that no protection could be afforded him by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that if he desired such protection at any time he would have to request it from the local police department.

CLARK produced the letter that was handwritten in blue ink on one side of white paper and mailed in a white envelope postmarked September 16, 1962, St. Paul, Minn., addressed to "DICK CLARK, American Bandstand, P.O. Box 6, Philadelphia 5, Pa." The letter contained the following threat:

CLARK stated he could furnish no additional information regarding the letter or the author.

Date September 26, 1962

[redacted]
[redacted] public relations employee for the DICK CLARK American Bandstand, WFIL-TV, Philadelphia, Pa., furnished the following information:

[redacted] advised that the letter containing the threat to DICK CLARK was received in the morning mail on September 18, 1962, which was picked up at the 30th Street Post Office Station. She stated that the fan mail is delivered to the studio in a large mail sack and is processed by the employees. She stated the letter in question was brought to the attention of Mr. CLARK and he advised that it should be reported to the FBI. [redacted] stated that letters of this nature have been extremely limited, although the volume of mail received daily is several thousand. She stated the name [redacted] on the envelope was not recalled by her or any of the other employees as an individual who may have requested tickets to one of the shows at any previous time. She stated, however, that she could not be certain, due to the large volume of mail, that this individual had not corresponded with the studio previously.

[redacted] advised that the following employees at the studio also handled the letter, in addition to Mr. CLARK and herself:

Synopsis:

Investigation St. Paul, Minn., at White Bear Lake, Minn., negative as to identification of individual who wrote letter in question. AUSA Philadelphia declined prosecution.

DETAILS:

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [REDACTED]

The records of the Ramsey County Board of Education, St. Paul, Minn., and the White Bear Lake Board of Education, were checked on September 26, 1962, in an effort to determine whether a [REDACTED] is or has been a student in any school in this area with negative results.

On September 26, 1962, [REDACTED] White Bear Lake, Minn., Police Department, advised after checking her files, she could find no mention of a [REDACTED]

On September 26, 1962, [REDACTED] White Bear Lake, Minn., Post Office, advised after viewing the envelope addressed to victim and displaying it to other mail sorters and holders in his office that the handwriting did not appear familiar. It is noted that the Post Office Department of St. Paul, Minn., is too large to conduct such an investigation as handled at the White Bear Lake Post Office.

9-40261-5

44-40261

On September 27, 1962, [redacted] Ramsey County Probation Office, St. Paul, Minn., advised he has no record of a [redacted] in his department.

On September 27, 1962, THOMAS F. WILSON, Mayor, White Bear Lake, Minn., and Chief Deputy GEORGE WEEBER, Ramsey County SC, St. Paul, Minn., both of whom are well acquainted in the Ramsey County area, advised that they have no recollection of a [redacted]

On September 27, 1962, [redacted] advised that he is the [redacted]. He stated that he has a child three years old and that his brother, [redacted] age [redacted] has a child age 12. He stated that he knows no other [redacted] or [redacted] other than his brother but would have no reason to suspect his brother of having written to the Dick Clark Show. It should be noted that [redacted] who was very cooperative, has been recontacted and he advised that neither he nor any of his relatives have any knowledge of this matter and all apparently expressed concern because it would appear that someone is using the family name in a derogatory fashion. [redacted] further advised that he is unable to recognize the handwriting on the envelope of the extortion letter.

On September 27, 1962, [redacted] advised that he is unable to shed any light on this matter other than that he advised he received an unsigned postcard in the late spring and that the picture part of the card showed a fishing scene. This card contained the message "Don't you wish you could catch a fish like this you henpecked husband." He stated he has no idea who sent him this card. He noted that he destroyed the postcard. He stated that in the event he received any other cards or messages, he will preserve them. Subsequent contacts with [redacted] were made with negative results.

On October 1, 1962, Sheriff FREDERICK GRANDJEAN and Deputy [redacted] both Washington County SC, Stillwater,

Min., advised that they had no suspects to provide in this matter. It should be noted that subsequent contacts with Sheriff R. B. BENT were made with negative results.

On October 2, 1962, Detective [redacted] and Lieutenant [redacted] both Juvenile Division, and Lieutenant [redacted] Homicide Division, St. Paul Police Department, advised they have no suspects in this matter.

On October 2, 1962, Captain [redacted] Ramsey County SO, St. Paul, Minn., was acquainted with this matter and advised that he would attempt to develop suspects through contacts with the Junior Sheriffs Association (School of Police). Subsequent contacts with Captain [redacted] were made with negative results.

On December 11, 1962, the facts of this case were discussed with Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] Philadelphia, Pa., at which time he declined prosecution on the basis that there is insufficient evidence and a likely suspect has not been developed and also on the basis that a considerable amount of time has elapsed without any additional action on the part of the unknown subject.
